March 23, 2020

Greetings,

We are writing you to inform you that your application to sell at the Bloomington Community Farmers' Market has been accepted. Welcome to Market 2020!

As you are aware, several updates have been made to the Farm Vendor Handbook and contract. Some of these changes were in response to events at the 2019 market. We want to remind you that your 2020 Farm Vendor Contract requires you to collaborate with other vendors and the City, to assist in creating a welcoming environment for all who attend the Market, and to act in a professional manner that reflects your commitment to the Market's mission and customer satisfaction. In addition, behavior outside of the Market that relates to the Market must not reflect poorly on the Market or the reputation of the City and must be consistent with the mission and goals of the Market. All vendors are responsible for knowing the rules of the Market and adhering to them.

We continue to have concerns about your failure last season to comply with the rules in some respects. We have previously communicated with you those details – including failing to notify us of the names of stand assistants and allegations of inappropriate behavior by some of those stand assistants. We expect that you will assure this season not to repeat those or other violations.

As always, if you have questions about any aspect of the Market, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. Stay tuned for more updates via the Market Beet.

I can be reached at (812) 349-3738 or veldmanm@bloomington.in.gov.

To a fruitful season,

Marcia Veldman
Market Coordinator
